Mennonite Church Canada and Canadian Mennonite University are bringing together the popular ministries of the National Church's Resource Centre and the University's Bookstore. The joint effort will be physically located in CMU's new Learning Commons facility. Construction is slated to begin in June, 2013.

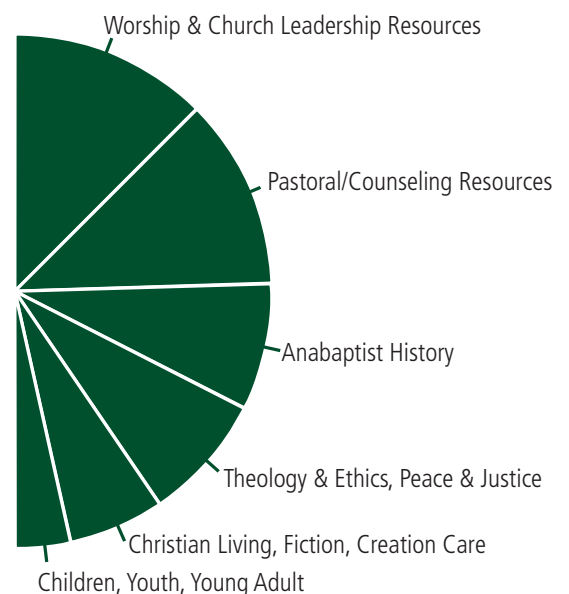

Here are a few facts about Mennonite Church Canada's Resource Centre and CMU's Bookstore ministry.

"I know the offered resources are good! I don't need to wade through a lot of junk to find the treasures."
