

Gathering – Longing for the Holy Spirit

Lord, even as you charged your disciples to wait for the promise of the Holy Spirit, we gather for worship today, longing for your Spirit to descend on us, too. Fill this place with your Holy Spirit. We long to receive power through the Holy Spirit to be witnesses of your glory, goodness, and grace to the ends of the earth. We wait with anticipation and hope, believing in faith that you will meet us here, in this place, today.
In your name we pray. Amen.
