

Confession – We Want to See You Anew

Eye-opening God, for moments when our eyes are shut
and we fail to perceive the wonder of Christ's presence right beside us, forgive us.

For seasons when our hearts and minds are sluggish,
and we miss the message of love
pulsing through your world, grant us mercy.

Open our eyes now to see you anew.

Renew our hearts with your grace,
and we will humbly, joyfully join in the celebration of your resurrection power.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
