

Confession – Your Kingdom Come

God of all the earth,
we do our best with the gifts we find around and within us.
We pray “your kingdom come” and we mean it, we try to live it.
We look into the future, and make plans that we hope reflect your future.
But we don’t always know what we truly need.
We don’t always see what our world truly needs.
We don’t always hear what you truly want from us.
So when you bless us, like Babel, with confusion and misunderstanding, we find the work of being your diverse people much too hard,
and we scatter from each other.

Silence

Pour out your Spirit on us,
so that we might prophesy, see visions, and dream dreams,
so that everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

Alissa Bender (Canada), 2019.

Creative Commons: Attribution Non-Commercial 4.0 International \(CC BY-4.0\)