

Call to Worship – My Soul Thirsts for You

God, you are my God.

I seek you. My soul thirsts for you.

And you invite me to the waters.

I come in my poverty, and you provide from your abundance.

For your steadfast love is better than life.

I seek you, trusting that you are a God who can be found.

I call upon you, trusting that you are a God who will answer.

Hear now my prayers and have mercy on me.
