

Call to Worship – Celebrating Friendship

*All: How good it is,
and how lovely when friends live together as one.
How lovely the home where your presence dwells,
God of all creation.
Happy the people you have inspired,
who journey through life, with you in their heart.
Who have known both sadness and tears,
and covered them with blessings,
like springs of water.
They go from strength to strength,
until they appear before God in Zion.
For God withholds no good, from those who walk in honesty.*
