Sensing Jesus' Passion is a Community-Developed resource submitted by Kevin Derksen, pastor at St. Jacobs Mennonite Church.

This multi-sensory Good Friday service is designed to allow the congregation to engage with the passion narrative using a variety of senses.

Do you also have a Lenten worship service to share?

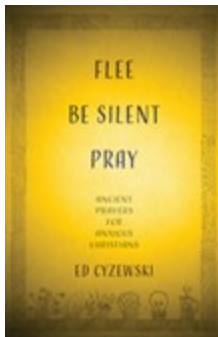

CommonWord gathers original digital resources to share.
For submission information visit <http://www.commonword.ca/go/1666>.

Nanabush and Buddha Link Arms: Why Treaties Matter to Religious Communities

Darren Courchene (Treaty Relations Commission of Manitoba) and Steve Heinrichs (Mennonite Church Canada) are putting together an exciting new book, Nanabush and Buddha Link Arms: Why Treaties Matter to Religious Communities?

If you'd like to be a part of this project, or have a friend that would be perfect for it, please send us a pitch!

University of Manitoba is the likely publisher and honoraria are available.

Details about the book and the pitch can be found here.

Let's Walk the Talk of Reconciliation with Bill C-262

Bill C-262 has passed 3rd reading in the House of Commons and is now up for debate in the Senate.

Request a package of free postcards and together with your church or community group, write our Senators, calling upon them to act for reconciliation between Indigenous and Settler peoples by supporting Bill C-262.

Note that no postage required. All mail headed to the Senate is free!

The Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada has stated that the adoption and implementation of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UNDRIP) is the key to genuine reconciliation between Indigenous and Settler peoples in Canada (Call to Action #43). Bill C-262 can help make that happen.

Supported by a broad array of Indigenous, social justice, and faith-based organizations, Bill C-262 is “An Act to Ensure that the Laws of Canada are in Harmony with the UNDRIP.” The current government has expressed support for the Declaration.

Now’s our chance to help them do the right thing...to help Canada take a tremendous step forward towards justice and healing.
