All sales proceeds in June of ISR titles* will go to the Jubilee Fund!

The Truth and Reconciliation Commission has reminded Canadians that “We are all Treaty People,” and has called us to embrace a double reconciliation - with Indigenous peoples and the land. To honour this movement, all proceeds from the sale of Indigenous-Settler Relations resources during the month of June will go to support grassroots Indigenous land reparation efforts through the Jubilee fund.

Annual grants from the Jubilee Fund have backed advocacy efforts to recognize Indigenous jurisdiction over traditional territories (including legal action), Land-based knowledge camps, traditional medicine/gardening projects, and more.

*Titles include:

Unsettling the Word, Wrongs to Rights, Yours, Mine, Ours, Quest for Respect, Lifting Hearts off the Ground, TRC Calls to Action/UNDRIP Articles

Staff Picks

We've created a Staff Picks section in our store. Here you'll find great titles, such as The Bible Tells Me So and Healing Justice, selected by CommonWord staff.

Make sure you stop by the store to see more of our picks.

Each summer for the last 11 years we have put together a list of books to take you through the summer.

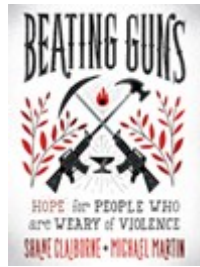

This year's list includes titles from authors such as Ray Friesen, Barbara Brown Taylor, and Robert Proudfoot.

Pick up a title or three and share the list with your friends to begin some great discussions.

Treaty Resources

Our friends in the Indigenous-Settler Relations office of Mennonite Church Canada are currently participating on the Walk for Common Ground. They and others are walking from Edmonton to Calgary to raise awareness about Treaties and why they matter.

In the spirit of Walk for Common Ground, here's a list of resources to engage the topic of treaty relations between Indigenous and Settler peoples.
