CLAREN, PEACE, BOON, VAIN, HONOURING

Introduction

Thanksgiving! This morning I'm going to tell you about something new that we're going to do this season. For 8 weeks during the season the authors are going to talk about "making peace". That means we're going to talk about finding ways of "not" fighting with each other. The reason of a "different" view on their families, we're going to do a "old" method. . . . because we thought that might be kind of fun.

Now this . . . it's going to be our "peace time", and every family that we have to talk, we will bring up a sign on the line, about the issues we discuss on their families.

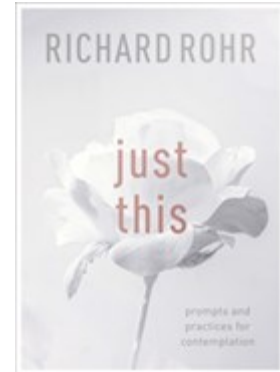

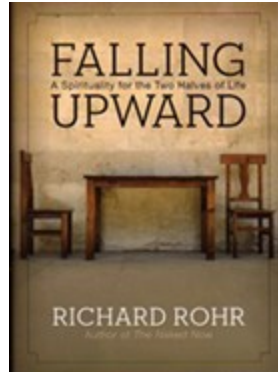

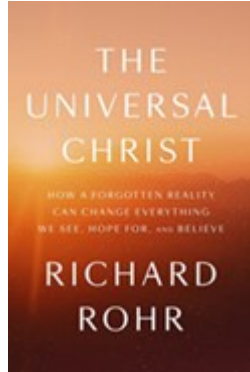

Now what's new is going to be about cooking peace with your neighbours, and that one more year neighbours that live right next door to you, or down the street, or your neighbouring countries. The neighbours on either side will meet and peacefully . . . just that we're going to end up fighting. So it will be our job to watch, and find all the things that need fixing. Oh . . . are you ready to watch carefully. . . . Oh, let's start!
