RECALL NOTICE

Voices Together Accompaniment Edition

(effective until May 1, 2021)

Due to a manufacturing defect, the Voices Together Accompaniment Edition is being recalled.

The end sheets used in binding were not reinforced and therefore the book's interior is pulling through at the punches.

MennoMedia has been in close communication with the printer, and the printer with the bindery, on how to correct this problem.

Rather than just a heavy paper end sheet, the new books will come with a linen reinforcement glued behind that paper, reinforcing the book at the punches.
