New style for 2022!

Wear an orange shirt on September 30th to remember and reflect upon the children who died in Residential Schools and the adults who survived.

A portion of the proceeds will be directed to the Native Northwest Reconciliation Fund to support people and families who continue to be impacted by Residential Schools and intergenerational trauma.

Its purpose is to advance reconciliation by funding initiatives that support Indigenous wellness, learning, and culture.

Visio Divina Project

Visio Divina cards for personal and congregational use

View

Our Visio Divina Project is a collection of “scripture-photos” for personal and congregational use.

Print them, sit with them, distribute them. Or project these images in your congregation’s worship.

And, please also consider contributing “scripture-photos” of your own.

Intercultural Stories of Love and Acceptance

Covering 50 years of peace and reconciliation work.

VIEW

Covering almost fifty years of peace and reconciliation work – from the Black-led civil rights struggles of the 1960s to decades-old relationships with Indigenous peoples on both sides of Lake Winnipeg in Manitoba – these stories draw similarities between familiar biblical concepts and Anishinaabe seven “A Way of Life Teachings.”
Includes a study guide.
